ARTICLE 1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this law is to create the Essex County Ethics and Disclosure Law in compliance with Article 18 of the New York State General Municipal Law. The citizens of Essex County are entitled to the expectation of exemplary ethical behavior from their County officers, employees and appointed officials, and this law is intended to create the minimum standards, which constitute that behavior. At the same time, one must recognize that public service cannot require a complete divesting of all proprietary interests by public servants, or impose overly burdensome disclosure requirements, if the government is to attract and hold highly competent officers and employees. Although the assurance of ethical, conflict-free conduct will continue to rest primarily on the personal integrity of the officers and employees themselves, on their commitment to the public good, and on the vigilance of the citizenry, the establishment of, and adherence to, the standards and procedures set forth in this law will serve to provide the highest caliber of public administration and foster increased confidence in public officials. By requiring public annual disclosure of interests that may influence or be perceived to influence the actions of government officials, by mandating ethics training for all government officials, and by assuring the availability of legal advice about the propriety of proposed actions by government officers and employees, this law intends to facilitate the consideration of potential problems before they arise, to minimize unwarranted suspicion, and to enhance the accountability of the government to the people. Recognizing that the overwhelming majority of public servants are honest, this law focuses primarily on prevention, not punishment, and thereby seeks to promote both the reality and the perception of integrity and transparency in government.

The provisions of this Ethics and Disclosure Law apply in addition to all applicable State and local laws relating to conflicts of interest and ethics and any subsequent amendments thereto. This Local Law is enacted pursuant to Section 806 of the General Municipal Law of the State of New York and Section 10 of the Municipal Home Rule and is not intended to authorize any conduct prohibited by Article 18 of the General Municipal Law or any subsequent amendments or modifications to Article 18 of the General Municipal Law. This Local Law also supplements other provisions of law regulating ethics and local government, such as Section 107 of the Civil Service Law of the State of New York.

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this Local Law and the provisions of Article 18 of the General Municipal Law or Section 107 of the Civil Service Law of the State of New York, the more restrictive provisions, or those imposing higher standards, shall govern and control.

Such advisory opinions shall be in response to written request from any such officer or employee under such rules and regulations as the Board may prescribe:

a. The Board shall render advisory opinions with respect to all matters covered by this law. An advisory opinion shall be rendered on the request of a county officer or employee or supervisory official of a county officer or employee and shall apply only to such public servant. The request shall be in such form as the Board may require and shall be signed by the person making the request. The opinion of the Board shall be based on such facts as presented in the request or subsequently submitted in a written, signed document.

b. Advisory opinions shall be issued only with respect to proposed future action by a public servant. A county officer or employee whose conduct or action is the subject of an advisory opinion shall not be subject to penalties or sanctions by virtue of acting or failing to act due to a reasonable reliance on the opinion, unless material facts were omitted or misstated in the request for an opinion. The Board may amend a previously issued advisory opinion after giving reasonable notice to the county officer or employee that it is reconsidering its opinion; provided that such amended advisory opinion shall apply only to future conduct or action of the public servant.

c. The Board shall make public its advisory opinions with such deletions as may be necessary to prevent disclosure of the identity of any county officer or employee or other involved party. The advisory opinions of the Board shall be indexed by subject matter and shall be maintained on an annual and cumulative basis.

d. For purposes of this subdivision, county officer or employee includes a current, prospective and county officer or employee, and a supervisory official includes a supervisory official who shall supervise, supervises or has supervised either a current, prospective or former county officer or employee.

b. All such complaints or allegations are to be kept in the confidential records of the Board.

3. Hearing Procedure

a. The Board may initiate an investigation upon its own motion or upon receipt of a sworn complaint alleging a violation. Upon initiating an investigation, the Board shall provide to the municipal officer or employee who is the subject of the investigation written notice describing the potential violation, providing the person with at least a fifteen (15) day period within which to submit a written response setting forth information related to the activities cited as the potential violation. The Board may also obtain additional information relating to the potential violation from such other sources as it deems appropriate. If at any time during an investigation, the Board determines that there has been no violation of this Article or Code of Ethics, the Board shall provide written notification of such determination to the municipal officer or employee who is the subject of the investigation and the complainant, if any. In such case, all documents and records relating to proceedings conducted pursuant to this subdivision shall be confidential.

b. Should the Board determine that there appears to be merit or probable cause in the complaint or allegations, it shall send a written invitation to the officer or employee in question to appear at a private meeting of the Board and explain the apparent conflict of interest. The written invitation shall be in the form of a notice and shall contain a statement of facts upon which the Board has relied for its determination of probable cause and a statement of the provisions of law allegedly violated. The Board shall also inform the county officer or employee of the Board's procedural rules. Such county officer or employee shall have a reasonable time to respond either orally or in writing, and shall have the right to be represented by counsel or any other person.

c. If, after consideration of the response of the officer or employee, the Board determines that there remains probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred, the Board shall hold or direct a hearing to be held on the record to determine whether such violation has occurred, or refer the matter to the appropriate department or appointing authority if the county officer or employee is subject to the jurisdiction of any state law or collective bargaining agreement which provides for conduct of disciplinary proceedings including, but not limited to, Disciplinary Grievance Arbitration and/or NYS Civil Service Law Section 75 or other proceedings. When such matter is referred to such department or appointing authority, the department or appointing authority may consult with the Board before issuing a final decision.

d. Should such officer or employee fail to appear in response to such invitation or should he or she appear and fail to satisfy the Board that there is no conflict of interest or violation of this law, the Board shall send a written report on the matter to the law, to the County Manager and the Clerk of the Board. The report shall not be made public except by the County Manager or by the unanimous vote of the Board.

e. If the Board determines, after a hearing or the opportunity for a hearing, that a county officer or employee has violated this law, it shall, after consultation with the head of the department or appointing authority for the officer or employee, issue an order either imposing such penalties as provided for by this law as it deems appropriate, or recommending such penalties to the head of the department or appointing authority if the county officer or employee is subject to the jurisdiction of any State Law or Collective Bargaining Agreement which provides for the conduct of disciplinary proceedings including, but not limited, Disciplinary Grievance Arbitration and/or NYS Civil Service Law Section 75 or other proceedings. The order shall include findings of facts and conclusions of law. All final orders of the Board or any appointing authority or department head relative to a determination of this Local Law and penalties shall be placed in the employee's personnel file and originals to be maintained by the Board.

h. Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the appointing officer of a county officer or employee from terminating or otherwise disciplining such public servant, where such appointing officer is otherwise authorized to do so; provided, however, that such action by the appointing officer shall not preclude the Board from exercising its powers and duties under this law with respect to actions of any public servant.

i. For purposes of this subdivision, the term county officer or employee shall include both current and former county officers and employees.

j. The Board of Ethics shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals relating to the proceedings authorized herein including the assessment of the civil penalties herein authorized. Such rules shall provide for the due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in Article Three of the State Administrative Procedure Act but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms of scope.

k. Any person compelled to appear in person or who voluntarily appears before the Board of Ethics shall be accorded the right to be accompanied, represented by, and/or advised by counsel.
